

General seminar rules

- Please register to the seminar by sending me an email before the first meeting
- The seminar topics will be distributed at the first meeting
- I will give an overview & introduction to the seminar at the beginning
- You will usually get the relevant material four weeks before your talk
- We will meet one week before your talk (in person, via zoom or email) for final discussion
- Talks will be given via zoom if restrictions do not allow to meet at University
- The presentation language (Englisch or German) is negotiable
- Each talk should be accompanied by a two-page handout
- All participants are expected to contribute to the discussion round